THE SUPPLIES PRACTITIONERS MANAGEMENT ACT
(No. 17 of 2007)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 4(1A) of the Supplies Practitioners Management Act, 2007, the Cabinet Secretary for the National Treasury and Planning makes the following Regulations—

THE SUPPLIES PRACTITIONERS MANAGEMENT (COUNCIL ELECTION) REGULATIONS, 2021

PART I—PRELIMINARY

- Citation. 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Supplies Practitioners Management (Council Election) Regulations, 2021.
- Interpretation. 2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—
- No. 17 of 2007. “Act” means the Supplies Practitioners Management Act, 2007;
“candidate” means a member of the Institute who is nominated to contest in an election;
“Committee” means the Elections Dispute Resolution Committee established under regulation 10;
“Council” has the meaning assigned to it under section 2 of the Act;
“election” means the process of selecting the candidate to represent registered members of the Institute;
“electoral body” means an entity appointed by the Council and approved by general meeting of the Institute, to conduct elections under these Regulations;
“electronic voting system” means a voting system where authorized Members cast their votes through an online communication system;
“member” means a person whose name is for the time being on a register of members of the Institute;
“voting token” means a device used to authenticate a voter;
“presiding officer” means a person appointed by the returning officer to preside over the election of the members of the Council;

“returning officer” means a person appointed by the Council to be in charge of the election of the members of the Council;

“panel” means the elections panel constituted under regulation 18;

“Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission” means the Commission established under Article 248(2)(c) of the Constitution;

“Institute” has the meaning assigned to it under section 2 of the Act;

“social media” means computer-based technology that facilitates the sharing of ideas, thoughts, and information relating to an election and it includes short messages.

Scope of the Regulations.

3. These Regulations shall apply to an election of —
 - (a) the Chairperson of the Council;
 - (b) six members of the Council elected in accordance with section 4(1A) of the Act; and
 - (c) with necessary modification, any other election to be determined by the Council.

Guiding principles.

4. The election of the Chairperson and members of the Council shall comply with the following principles—
 - (a) free and fair;
 - (b) by secret ballot;
 - (c) free from violence, intimidation or improper influence;
 - (d) conducted in a transparent manner;
 - (e) conducted by an independent body;
 - (f) secure; including an end to end verifiable system; and
 - (g) administered in an impartial, neutral, efficient, accurate and accountable manner.

PART II—ELECTORAL BODY

Electoral body.

5. (1) The Council shall, at least six months to an election, propose an electoral body to conduct the Council elections.
 - (2) The electoral body proposed under paragraph (1) shall be approved at the general meeting of the Institute preceding the election.
 - (3) The Council shall prior to submission of the proposal under this regulation to the members for approval, obtain a written commitment to conduct the Council elections from the requisite electoral body.

(4) Where the proposed electoral body is not the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission, the Council may propose two or more names of electoral bodies from which the members shall approve one, for the purpose of conducting the elections.

(5) Where members fail to approve the requisite electoral body in accordance with this regulation, the Council shall upon giving the members a seven days' notice, appoint the electoral body to conduct the elections of the Council.

Electronic voting.

6. (1) Voting at the Council election shall be by electronic means.

(2) Despite paragraph (1) the electoral body shall put in place a complementary voting mechanism to be used where the electronic voting fails.

(3) The complementary voting mechanism under paragraph (2) shall be simple, accurate, verifiable, secure, accountable, transparent and in compliance with the Act and other written laws.

(4) The complementary voting mechanism envisaged under paragraph (2) shall be limited to the election activities which the electronic system is unable to perform.
