KISM/2022c.

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: ETHICAL AND ANTI-CORRUPTION CONSIDERATIONS IN SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT: CASE STUDIES WORKSHOP, 21ST JUNE 2022 AT KISM TOWERS, NAIROBI.

Organizations, professionals and suppliers often seek to address ethics and professional conduct through prescribing frameworks or influencing organizational cultures that mitigate fraud, corruption and misconduct. Rules governing ethics and anti-corruption are generally written in broad conceptual terms rather than in specific situational or descriptive terms. This leaves room for procurement experts and players to apply constructive innovation, and professionalism in the spirit of the law within existing procedural options.

This training seeks to enable participants appreciate that ethical practices form pillars to economic growth, sustainable development and risk management.
