

NOTICE TO KISM MEMBERSHIP, STAKEHOLDERS & THE GENERAL PUBLIC

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THE KENYA INSTITUTE OF SUPPLIES MANAGEMENT DRAFT CONTINUOUS DEVELOPMENT POLICY

Kenya Institute of Supplies Management is a corporate body established through an Act of Parliament under the Supplies Practitioners Management Act 2007. The Supplies Practitioners Management Act-2007 (SPMA) under section 16(10) prescribes that “A member of the Institute shall be required to undergo such continuous professional development programmes as may be prescribed by the Council”.

Pursuant to provisions of Section 16(10) of the Supplies Practitioners Management Act, the Council has developed a draft Continuous Professional Development Policy to guide its Members and other interested parties on how the aforementioned programmes shall be administered. The Draft Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Policy has been rigorously benchmarked with similar policies from other professional bodies in the country. In line with Article 10 of the Constitution of Kenya and Section 5 of the Statutory Instruments Act 2013 on the requirements for public participation and stakeholder engagement, the Institute, hereby invites members of the Institute and the general public to the following consultative workshops on the Institute plans to hold various stakeholder forums (virtual/hybrid and physical) across the country to collect views on the draft Policy.

Kindly visit the KISM website www.kism.or.ke to access the draft CPD policy.
