REMARKS BY THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF KENYA INSTITUTE OF SUPPLIES MANAGEMENT (KISM) DURING THE RISK MANAGEMENT IN SUPPLY CHAIN TRAINING HELD AT KISM TOWERS, NAIROBI ON 17 MAY 2024

---

- ❖ Dear Colleagues,
- ❖ Resource Persons,
- ❖ Ladies and Gentlemen,
- ❖ Good morning!

1. I am happy to join you this morning during this important training on Risk Management. I take this opportunity to convey greetings to you from the entire KISM Fraternity. We are happy to host this Programme, and I thank you most sincerely for choosing KISM.
2. I have noted, all of you are our Members and we will endeavour to rationalize our business processes to serve you better, as we deliver relevant content in our Programmes that meets the expectations of the industry.
3. Please join us in the transformation agenda of the Institute by being our ambassadors of change. This is possible if we ensure compliance and good standing and most important is professionalism and selfless service to our Country.
4. The Centrality of Risk Management in the Supply Chain Practice is key, and I am confident the resource persons and content that has been put together will equip you with the skills and competencies needed to navigate this challenging but crucial pillar "SCM " of our socio-economic development.

5. My Office has an entrenched open door policy, and my contacts are available for all you. Please feel free to reach us on any matters of concern.
6. The priority for now is to strengthen our compliance initiatives, entrench efficiency and effectiveness for better service delivery, positioning of the supply chain profession for better credibility and understanding. We are working hard to ensure our members are adequately empowered to deliver on their responsibilities.
7. Finally, convey our gratitude to your leadership for facilitating and partnering with us during this training. Wishing you God's grace and favour as you serve our Country. Ultimately, the Supply Chain Profession shall be better as we collectively work together.
8. I thank you all most sincerely.
