

REMARKS BY MR. JOHN KARANI MBS, CHAIRMAN
OF THE KENYA INSTITUTE OF SUPPLIES
MANAGEMENT (KISM) AT CIArb KENYA @40
INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION CONFERENCE
15TH TO 17TH MAY 2024, NAIROBI.

Professional Colleagues,
Ladies and Gentlemen,
Good evening!

1. Mandate of KISM
 2. Partnership with CIABR
 3. Administrative Review in SCM
 4. Importance of ADR
 5. Foresights in collaboration and partnership
1. Am pleased to join you as you celebrate 40 years of ADR excellence. As a professional body KISM is proud to be associated with Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Kenya Branch.
 2. KISM and CIArb signed an Memorandum of understanding to establish a framework of collaboration anchored on our mutual interest in promoting Alternative Dispute Resolution in the Supply Chain arena.
 3. Kenya Institute of Supplies Management (KISM) is the professional body procurement and supply chain practitioners. KISM plays a significant role in ensuring that procurement and supply chain management in Kenya is conducted in a professional, ethical, and efficient manner.
 4. We are embracing arbitration as method for resolving disputes arising in procurement and supply chain management. It offers an alternative to traditional litigation in court, providing several potential advantages on contractual breaches, payment disputes, termination of contracts among others.

5. Thus being here today affirms our commitment to continue to arbitration but also strengthening our relations as professional bodies.

Looking forward to growing our partnership.

Thank you for inviting us to be part of this celebrations. Together we shall achieve more.

John Karani, MBS
Chairman
Kenya Institute Supplies Management
