OPERATIONALIZATION OF THE REGIONAL CHAPTERS

The Institute announced the approval of the Regional Chapter Governance Policy by the Council after the conclusion of public participation. The Policy provides a framework for creating and operating Regional Chapters of the Institute.

Regional chapters will bring the Institute closer to members and providing a platform for:

- Increased Engagement: Participate in discussions, workshops, and other activities tailored to your region's needs.
- Improved Access: Connect with fellow members, access resources, and receive support more conveniently.
- Growth and Development: Contribute to the local growth of The Institute by building a strong regional network.

Chairman Mr. John Karani along with CM Fidel Muema and CM Jeniffer Cirindi, launched the Coast Regional Chapter's operations on 14th June 2024 at Travellers Beach Hotel, with participation of 104 members drawn from Taita Taveta, Kilifi, Kwale counties.

KENYA INSTITUTE OF SUPPLIES EXAMINATION BOARD (KISEB), 4TH AWARD CEREMONY

The CEO – KISM, Mr. Kenneth Matiba was honored to speak during the 4th Award Ceremony for the Kenya Institute of Supplies Examination Board (KISEB), where 203 candidates were awarded full certification in CPSP-K while 581 partial qualifications were awarded to the candidates. Noting that in 2019, only 3 candidates were awarded full certification, Mr. Matiba congratulated KISEB for the transformative interventions and concerted efforts in the delivery of its programmes.

The CEO underscored the collaborative approach for greater relevance and credibility. He noted the recently signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to collaborate on Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) within the Supply Chain Management practice in Kenya.

He challenged the grandaunts to confidently proceed and deploy the knowledge and skills they have acquired for the benefit of society. “While exercising integrity and professionalism, show passionate focus as you engage in your career path with a future-oriented approach of accountability and credibility. In addition, strive to further your education in this area of Supply Chain Management.”

He concluded by encouraging them to have the right attitude and embody values of selflessness in service delivery, be agile and innovative to fit in this competitive and complex career.

While exercising integrity and professionalism, show passionate focus as you engage in your career path with a future-oriented approach of accountability and credibility.

Kenneth Matiba,
CEO, KISM

KISM – KCA UNIVERSITY COLLABORATION AND PARTNERSHIP

OPERATIONALIZATION OF THE KISM REGIONAL CHAPTERS

Dear Distinguished Member,

The Institute hereby announce the approval of the Regional Chapter Governance Policy by the Council after conclusion of public participation. The Policy provides a framework for creating and operating Regional Chapters of the Institute. The KISM Council invites interested members to form Regional Chapters in their respective regions

Chief Executive Officer

The Institute announces the approval of the Regional Chapter Governance Policy by the Council after the conclusion of public participation. The Policy provides a framework for creating and operating Regional Chapters of the Institute.

Regional chapters will bring The Institute closer to you! These local groups will provide a platform for:

- Increased Engagement: Participate in discussions, workshops, and other activities tailored to your region's needs.
- Improved Access: Connect with fellow members, access resources, and receive support more conveniently.
- Growth and Development: Contribute to the local growth of The Institute by building a strong regional network.

Starting June 2024, we'll be reaching out to members in your area to discuss the policy and explore forming a regional chapter.

Stay tuned for further information and upcoming engagement opportunities!
