FELLOWSHIP OF THE KENYA INSTITUTE OF SUPPLIES MANAGEMENT (F.K.I.S.M)

UPDATE ON THE 2026 KISM FELLOWSHIP SHORTLISTING EXERCISE AND PROPOSED HONORARY MEMBERSHIP RECOGNITION

The Kenya Institute of Supplies Management (KISM) wishes to inform members and stakeholders of the progress made in the 2026 Fellowship conferment exercise and the recommendations arising from the Fellows Nominating Committee.

1. FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION AND SHORTLISTING PROCESS

Pursuant to Section 3A of the Supplies Practitioners Management Act, 2007, and the KISM Fellowship Policy, 2025, the Institute issued a call for Fellowship applications on 26 June 2026. By the application deadline of 10 July 2026, a total of 53 applications had been received. The membership and stakeholders were subsequently informed of the exercise on 7 September 2026.

The Council, through the Fellows Nominating Committee, undertook a comprehensive assessment of the applications in accordance with Clauses 12 and 13 of the Fellowship Policy, 2025 during its meeting held on 14 October, 2026.

Following the assessment, 33 candidates attained the minimum qualifying score of 80% and were recommended for further consideration for the conferment of Fellowship of the Institute (F.K.I.S.M.), subject to the requisite due diligence and approval processes.

2. LIST OF SHORTLISTED FELLOWSHIP CANDIDATES

The Institute hereby notifies members and stakeholders of the 33 candidates recommended for further consideration for Fellowship as detailed in Table 1.

3. PROPOSED HONORARY MEMBERSHIP RECOGNITION

Separately, the Institute has recommended Hon. Julia Ojiambo, EGH, for consideration for the conferment of Honorary Membership of KISM.

The proposed recognition is in appreciation of her distinguished contribution to the enactment of the Supplies Practitioners Management Act, 2007, which established the Institute and provided the statutory foundation for the regulation and professionalisation of the supplies practice in Kenya.

The recognition seeks to acknowledge her historical contribution to the establishment and development of KISM and the advancement of the supply chain management profession in the country, and is being considered pursuant to Section 3B of the SPMA, 2007.

4. NEXT STEPS AND INSTITUTIONAL APPRECIATION

The Fellowship recommendations will proceed through the requisite due diligence and final approval processes in accordance with the Institute's Fellowship Policy and applicable governance requirements. The proposed Honorary Membership recognition will similarly be processed through the established institutional procedures.

KISM appreciates all members who participated in the Fellowship application process. The Institute also acknowledges the Fellows Nominating Committee and the Council for their commitment and diligence in upholding the principles of merit, integrity, professionalism and excellence throughout the exercise.

The Institute remains committed to recognising distinguished professional service, leadership and contributions to the advancement of supply chain management in Kenya.
